

HARDING GREETED
BY GREAT THROG
IN KANSAS CITY

Deals With The Railroad
Problem In Second Speech Today.

COURT ISSUE NOW
GOES TO PEOPLE

Makes Every Concession To Opposition He Can Consistently.

Kansas City, Mo., June 22.—President Harding arrived here this morning the second speaking stop on his long western journey.

Thousands of people, packing the streets about Union station and along the line of a motor parade, accorded the chief executive and Mrs. Harding a tumultuous ovation.

The president was in good spirits when he arrived in Kansas City. He feels that in St. Louis last night he spoke the last word on the world court issue and is content to let it go to the people along the lines he laid down in that address.

Here in the gateway to the west the president today will deliver the second of his scheduled speeches, dealing with the railroad problem. He will stress the necessity of consolidating the country's lines into a few great systems and suggest some legislative remedies which he hopes will be adopted by the next congress.

Last night he said that he is not "wedded irrevocably to any particular method," of showing America's willingness to embrace the principles of international arbitration; he had indicated clearly that he is willing to accept any "reasonable reservations" which the Republican irreconcilables may decide are necessary, but further than this, his friends said today, Mr. Harding will not go.

Makes Concessions

The president considers that in his speech at St. Louis last night he made every concession to the opposition that consistently can be asked of him—even by the irreconcilables. He takes the position that Republican platforms for 20 years have pledged the party to the world court idea and he considers that he has now offered the party an opportunity to "make good" on the pledge and with its own terms in doing it.

"I am so eager for the ultimate accomplishment," he said, "that I am interested in harmonizing opposing elements, more anxious to effect our helpful commitment to the court than I am to score a victory for executive insistence."

With this disclaimer of White House dictation, which was loudly cheered by his St. Louis audience, and with the reiterated pledge that joining the league does not mean joining the league, Mr. Harding is content to rest his case. He will refer to the court only incidentally during the many other speeches he will make between St. Louis and San Diego. From now on, his major speeches will be devoted to questions concerning drastic issues—transportation, taxation, law enforcement, social justice, etc.

DISCOUNT CO. AUDIT
REVEALS BIG LOSS

Report Of Receivers To Stockholders Calls
Firm Solvent.

A summary of the long awaited auditors' report on the condition of the Cleveland Discount Co., made public by the receivers, confirm the general understanding that the common stock is worthless and states that the value of the $7,015,000 preferred is "extremely problematical."

The summary shows, however, that the company still is solvent and has assets approximately $2,331,000 in excess of liabilities, a fact which will reassure thousands of holders of the company's bonds and partial payment receipts.

Out of $9,568,670 capital paid into the company, only $2,331,847 remains. The losses sustained by the stockholders up to date of the statement would appear to be $7,236,823. This does not take into account profits or losses which have been or may be sustained in the sale of the company's real estate. This has not been appraised.

The summary was given out by William L. David and Gardner Abbott, receivers, in the form of a letter to stockholders, many of whom are Salem residents and a condensed telephone sheet drawn up from the auditors' report.

Salem Men Produce
Real Fish Story

Two of the biggest fish caught at the Country club lake since last season were pulled out by Harry Parks late Wednesday night.

The first bass weighed five pounds and was 20 inches long. Giving this fish to Dr. A. J. Hill who was with him Parks jokingly said he would go out and catch another one just like it.

The joke turned into a reality, for in five minutes he landed another within a half pound as heavy as the first bass.

Taking no chances that the large victim would escape after such a catch the fishermen anchored the fish to the bank with a large sash weight.

LINER WITH BOOZE
CARGO IS SEIZED

First Test Given Treasury
Ruling Following Dry
Ship Decision.

New York, June 22.—The first test of the treasury department ruling following the U. S. supreme court decision concerning the bringing of liquor within the three-mile sea limit by incoming trans-Atlantic liners arose unexpectedly today when the White Star steamship Baltic, without previous warning, slipped into port carrying liquor for her return voyage.

The customs officials had not anticipated the necessity of taking action until the arrival of the Cunard liner Berongaria and the Baltic's previous arrival drove all the local officials to a hurried conference. The result was a technical seizure of the liquor which was placed under customs' guards, but the seas of the British customs on the liquor store room were not immediately broken by the United States authorities.

It was pointed out by customs officials that the seizure of the Baltic's liquor would automatically cause the arrest of the commander, Capt. Roberts, for alleged violation of the Volstead law as interpreted by the supreme court decision. However, no action in this respect was taken immediately.

List A Booze stock

When the Baltic reached quarantine, the boarding customs officers were presented with a manifesto by the ship's commander listing, besides the bottles of brandy allowable for medical purposes, the following liquor list as stored for the Baltic's return voyage: 5,736 bottle of lager, ale and stout; 305 bottles of whisky and brandy; 199 bottles of wine; 38 bottles of liquor.

When the customs officers who boarded the Baltic discovered that the ship had this liquor aboard, they wired authorities at the custom house and when the Baltic docked at the pier other customs officers placed the store room under guard which means a technical seizure of the liquor.

Further instructions, as to whether the liquor should be removed from the boat were awaited by the customs authorities here from the treasury department at Washington.

TO BE CONSIDERED

A meeting of the Retail Merchants board has been called for 10 a. m. Tuesday morning by Chairman Joseph A. Schwartz. Among the important subjects to be discussed will be the question as to whether the Homecoming Harvest festival will be held this fall.

Members of the merchants body have contributed generously to the street cleaning fund, but there are many business places which have failed to heed the request of the Chamber of Commerce and service director concerning the throwing of waste paper and rubbish into the alleys and gutters.

And Miss Lucas Of Detroit Are Victims.

BODIES MANGLED BY GREAT IMPACT

Accident Occurs Near Lake
Brady; Heacock Widely Known Here.

When the automobile in which they were returning from Cleveland collided with a B. & O. freight train at a crossing near Lake Brady, Irvin F. Heacock, 49, of Beloit, and Miss Alice N. Lucas, 38, of Detroit, were instantly killed about 10 p. m. Thursday night.

The crossing is a dangerous one and it is thought that Heacock did not see the approach of the train.

Bodies Are Mangled

Both persons were dead when farmers living in the vicinity of the wreck extracted them from the wreck. The bodies were mangled and the impact broke the water line leading from the tank of the engine to the boiler. According to the train crew it was necessary to draw the fire to prevent an explosion of the boiler.

A motorist who was changing a tire near the scene of the accident, told the coroner that he noticed the Heacock car when it passed him at a terrific speed.

Miss Lucas was crushed almost beyond identification, her head being nearly torn off by the crash. It was not until Friday morning that friends were able to identify her.

Both bodies were removed to undertaking parlors in Alliance. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Mr. Heacock was widely known in Salem. For the last 12 years he had been engaged in the investment business in Alliance. Previously he sold insurance in Columbiana county and in Alliance.

Prominent In Alliance

Mr. Heacock was a member of the board of directors of the First National bank and of the Peoples bank of Alliance, a member of the board of directors of the Stark Electric railroad and was prominent in civic and fraternal organizations.

Irvin F. Heacock was born on the Heacock farm, south of Sebring, the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Heacock. He obtained his early education in nearby schools and was graduated from Mt. Union college in 1898. He studied law at Ohio State university for two years.

For about 20 years he had been engaged in the brokerage and insurance business through which he had gained a wide acquaintance in Columbiana and adjoining counties.

Surviving Mr. Heacock are his widow, two children, Miss Sarah and King Heacock, both at home in Beloit; two sisters, Mrs. George Russell of Salem, Mrs. I. E. Reldinger and his mother, Mrs. I. B. Heacock of Alliance, and two brothers, A. C. Heacock of Sebring, Fla., and R. B. Heacock of Lisbon.

Near East Relief
Donations Sought
By Churches Here

Plea Made To Contribute
Clothing At Services
Next Sunday.

A plea is being made by the churches of the city, at the request of the Salem Ministerial association, for second hand clothing for use in the Near East relief work.

Recent events, known to the whole world, have made destitute another million and a half people and are daily orphaning children who must be cared for by the world's charity.

In wretched refugee camps in Greece and Syria and the islands of the eastern Mediterranean, babies are born without a square of muslin to cover them and women and children die hourly for want of a blanket to protect them from the mud of the earth, which is their bed. Their clothes, worn during their evacuation from Asia Minor and throughout the winter's biting weather, hang in shreds on their bodies.

Those who can contribute clothing are asked to take it to their respective churches Sunday. The need is for warm clothing and these articles are desired: Coats, dresses, suits, all sizes; sweaters, mittens, wool stockings, boots and shoes, woolen gloves, woolen shirts, shop worn goods, new garments and sheets to make bandages.

Mr. Converse is placing the system on the market for the inventor and several already have been installed by the latter. Mr. Converse is secretary-treasurer and general manager of the company and W. A. Thurston, widely known in Salem is president.

Mr. Converse will be in Salem next week to meet any Salem residents who may be interested.

Lisbon's On Trail
Of Whitfield

Lisbon, June 22.—Two excited citizens late Thursday evening, hunted up Chief Lewton and informed him that the famous Whitfield was in town and that he should get on the trail.

The chief was more than willing and limbering up his handkerchiefs and getting a grip on his trusty "billy" he ordered his informants to lead on.

They led for quite a while but failed to find the suspect. After the town had been thoroughly searched they proposed that they look around the countryside a bit. The chief was willing but said his authority ended at the town line.

The citizens then hunted up Sheriff Lewis but the sheriff after listening to their tale and noting the ill success of their efforts refused to get excited about the matter and the hunt was ended.

RUNAWAY YOUTHS
ARE CAUGH THERE;
WANTED TO ROAM

Cleveland Boys, Tired Of School Life, Returned To Parents.

Two runaway boys from Cleveland were apprehended here Friday morning.

Daniel Hann, 14, son of Mrs. Anna Hann, and Thomas Shillhavy, 13, left their homes Thursday for an extended trip to see the world.

A boy living near the Hann home followed them to the Pennsylvania ticket office in Cleveland and learned that they had purchased tickets for Salem.

Police were notified to watch for the youths. In the meantime Mrs. Hann accompanied by several neighbors, hastily formed a searching party and started in the direction of Salem.

Arriving here early Friday Salem police met them with the news that the two boys had been located on the farm of A. Slosser on the Albany rd.

Proceeding to the Slosser home the two lads were surprised before they could make their escape.

Wanted To See The World

They told a story of youthful woe. Each was tired of school life and anxious to see the world. It was arranged that when the parents of the boys had gone shopping they would slip away from parental care and shift for themselves.

The boys did not believe their escape would be noticed for some time. It happened, however, that in their boasts to playmates they spoke several times of a friend in Salem whom they were going to see some time soon.

The friend turned out to be Andrew Wagner, Neward, who was a friend of the Hann boys' parents. The youths came to his home late night and said they were on a visit and that their parents were fully aware of the fact.

Leaving the Wagner home early this morning before breakfast they started out on foot to see the sights.

A farmer living near the Slosser home became suspicious of their actions and when the lads wanted to stay a day on the farm and earn enough so they could move on "in style" to their next place of adventure the farmer notified the Salem police.

Lovers' Secrets Are Bared
By The "Mystery Man"

The mystery man paid a visit to the Royal theatre yesterday afternoon in an attempt to "catch Gloria Swanson and Antonio Moreo talking. But he reports that the entire cast in "My American Wife" picture were sticking to their script from start to finish.

The mystery man decided to go stepping around to see if the boys and girls of Salem would do better than Gloria Swanson and Mr. Moreo.

He was rewarded when he caught the following conversation in the five and ten store between two young ladies dressed in white silk dresses, both about 5 ft. 3 in. tall.

First Lady: "I got a date with that blond fellow that is here from Detroit."

Second Lady: "You don't mean George, do you?"

First Lady: "Yes, why?"

Second Lady: (Laughing) "You poor fish, I'm going out to Youngstown with him and another couple right after supper."

First Lady: "You're married, why don't you go out with your husband?"

Second Lady: "Mind your business, and I mind mine."

A Love Scene

Two young ladies were standing on the midway in front of the ferris wheel, when the mystery man caught in the following conversation:

First lady, black and white dress, about 5 ft. 4 in., very beautiful looking.

Second lady, dressed in a blue or black beaded dress, about 5 ft. 8 in.

First Lady: "Are you sure they said for us to wait here?"

Second Lady: "Why yes, this is the ferris wheel, isn't it?"

First Lady: "Did he really ask you to marry him?"

Second Lady: "Yes, last night he was hugging and kissing me so much that I said to him, 'be careful, Dad'."

AIRMEN FLY OVER
MT. ETNA' CRATER

Discover Lava Is Flowing From Only Few Of Fissures.

Rome, June 22.—Mount Etna's eruption waned in fury today and at noon there was only a small trickle of lava advancing at the rate of six yards an hour. Rumbles could still be heard in the interior of the volcano with an occasional explosion.

Army aviators who flew over the crater, through clouds of black smoke and sickening fumes, reported that lava was flowing from only some of the half dozen fissures that had opened since the eruption began last Sunday.

Although the agricultural loss is put at $10,000,000, King Victor Emmanuel, who investigated on the scene, informed the authorities the catastrophe was less appalling than first believed. The slowness of the lava advance enabled all persons in the threatened communities to leave safely.

Linguaglossa was saved as though by a miracle. At latest reports the lava was 900 yards distant from the center of the town.

A black pall of smoke and poisonous fumes hang over the countryside. Troops are having difficulty to prevent peasants from returning to the evacuated villages. Already some of the peasants have returned to their homes and are breaking up the cold lava congealed over their fields.

Ending Russian Relief
COLONEL HASKELL has announceed the ending of the work of the American relief administration in Russia.

The forthcoming harvest indicates that there will be a surplus of food over all the internal needs of the nation. It now is up to Russia to solve the problem of distribution. She will be able to export her surplus and thus secure needed supplies of other materials from abroad. Our beneficence here ends. It is well.

The A. R. A. saved millions of people during its two years of active work. It cared for multitudes of waifs and orphans and broken men and women. It distributed medical relief as well as food. Even Kamenef expressed gratitude for this vast service, which is without parallel in the history of modern organized philanthropy.

But in helping the suffering, starving millions of Russia, the victims of a new and terrible despotism, the A.
R. A. contributed to the strengthening of that despotism. The Soviet profits because humanitarianism has been placed above and beyond all political considerations.

It is stated by Colonel Haskell that since August, 1921, the organization has distributed more than 1,500,000 of adult and child rations, and that last summer 11,000,000 men, women and children owed their escape from death by starvation to the daily American ration. And all this time Russia has been plentifully feeding her great red army!

A striking feature of the work of the organization was the service rendered to professional men, doctors, teachers and artists, people whom Colonel Haskell describes as constituting beyond question the most valuable section of the Russian population, but who are not reckoned of importance in the Soviet scheme.

Eighty million people were supplied with medical treatment and hospital care. Such is the story of the A. R. A.
It is a wonderful story. It represents the exemplification of Christianity on a colossal scale in a government which has repudiated Christianity.
It will, let us hope, turn the eyes of millions to this land of freedom and fraternity, whose example may, in time, inspire them to political and spiritual emulation of those virtues essential to national stability and human happiness.

Well Merited Honor
TO HIS list of other college degrees
Rev. H. H. Scott has added that of Doctor of Divinity through the courtesy of Mt. Union college. In awarding the honor President Mc-Master said that Dr. Scott is a man of scientific mind and at the same time a scholar of the Scriptures and a deep thinker. To all of which his legion of Salem friends will subscribe freely.
They know him as a great student of all things that are worth while,
with a seemingly unlimited capacity for absorbing his information, drawing therefrom able deductions and then having the ability to impart to his fellowmen messages of clarity and effectiveness. Mt. Union college has honored a man deserving of all that the degree implies.

here Thursday of the Ohio State Bankers' association, said there is a place for the well managed building and loan association, but that such organizations should pay taxes on their assets as banks do.

"We are opposed to the promoter type of building and loan association in territory where the needs of savers are well taken care of," declared Yeasting.

He urged bankers to keep the ship of prosperity on an even keel, never to let politics into the federal reserve system and to take cognizance of the farmers' problems.

William Ganson Rose, Cleveland, urged bankers to use themselves, their stockholders and customers as advertisers and said that the newspaper continues to be the greatest medium for informing the public of bank service.

PAINFUL HEEL

In reading an article by an English author on the above subject I recalled to my mind one cause that he failed to mention.

Most cases are simply due to bruising against our modern hard baked pavements. The treatment is simply three days rest with the feet elevated and bathing the feet with hot water.
Sometimes the heel of the foot is irregular and requires attention. Sometimes it is the back of the heel where the long heavy tendon is attached to the heel bone. There is a little bag of water here and it gets inflamed and enlarged.

Putting a pad under the heel raises this spot so that the shoe does not strike it at the same place and also by raising the heel takes some of the stretch off the tendon. He mentions other causes of painful heels also.

However there is a form very frequently overlooked where there is an actual outgrowth of bone under the heel just where we place the heel against the ground in walking. They stick out like little spikes, and are called spurs.

Now you can just imagine what that is going to do to you when you put your whole weight down on it.
It is terribly painful.

Now what is the cause of it?
Well, something you have got into your system goes to that point and sets up the trouble.

It can be from teeth, tonsils, or other parts of the body. Nature tries her best to help out the condition and often forms a sort of cushion which gradually lessens the pain for the sufferer. Sometimes a pad with a central hole in it like a corn plaster gives great relief. Often, however, these spurs have to be chiseled off by the surgeon.

So if a heel persists in paining you after giving it the ordinary treatment it would be well to have an X-ray of the foot from the side, and see if this is not the cause of your trouble.

CASHIER MAKES EVIDENCE PUBLIC

Miss Jones Tells How Taniac Fully Restored Health After Everything Else Failed

"How Taniac could build me up to such splendid health when I was so rundown and nothing else helped me, is more than I can understand," says Miss May Jones, Kennard hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, popular young business woman employed as cashier by a large corporation.

"For a year or more I had suffered from nervousness, indigestion and loss of appetite, and I felt listless, dull and tired out all the time. Heartburn and gas caused me serious distress after eating. I had fearful headaches, too, and could never sleep well. I was so worried and nervous that a long line of customers before the cash window confused me, and I simply felt miserable."

"Well, Taniac benefited me from the very start, and now I haven't an ailment of any kind. I don't see how anyone who suffers like I did can afford not to take Taniac, for the treatment has certainly rewarded me with a full measure of good health."

Taniac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Taniac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

BERG PERMITTED TO APPEAL CASE

Alleged Error In Ferren's Court Will Be Reviewed At Lisbon.

Lisbon, June 22.—Permission has been granted Conrad Berg, through his attorneys, Hill and Davidson, to file a petition in common pleas court, asking for a rehearing of the recent case against him, tried in Mayor Ferren's court.

At this trial Berg was found guilty and fined $1,000 on the charge of possessing liquor. It will be recalled that Berg's defense at the trial before Mayor Ferren was that he already had been on trial before the mayor of Leetonia on a similar charge.

In the petition asking for a re-trial, Berg recites the different steps in the case and claims that Mayor Ferren erred in his rulings. One of the errors, so the petition states, was the overlooking of affidavits of men who alleged they had heard the mayor threaten Berg with prosecution and say that he would "get him." Other errors are alleged.

Berg is now in Canada on a fishing trip but his attorneys state that he will probably be home within the next week or so.

PLACES WRECKING TRUCK IN SERVICE

The Chalfant Motor company has just placed in operation a new service truck that will be a boon to the motorists of the community. The car is fitted out by the Single Motor company of Cincinnati and is conceded by motor authorities to be the most completely equipped wrecking truck that has ever been placed on the market.

With this car one man is able to completely lift any article weighing up to five tons and is capable of lifting any car weighing two and one-half tons and carry it any distance. The equipment consists of an assortment of wrenches, pliers, shovels, hammers, crowbars, tire tools, and all devices necessary to pull a car out of a ditch.

The Chalfant Motor has a rather novel method of giving service. For the nominal sum of four cents a day, the company agrees to tow their members in from any distance up to miles from their place, day or night, week days or Sundays, without additional charge they will deliver gasoline, change tires, pull the car out of a ditch, or make any minor mechanical adjustment on the car that may be necessary to make the motor run properly. This service makes it possible for the car owners of Salem to operate their cars without unnecessary worry over such matters.

LOVERS' SECRETS

may come in on us." So he said "who cares for him?" "I have a right to do this, haven't I?"

First Lady: "Did he ask you then?" Second Lady: "Oh no, it was about half an hour before that, that he asked me."

First Lady: "You will be sorry, mark my word. Look at all the good you'll lose."

Second Lady: "I don't think so, and another thing, I won't have to work any more."

First Lady: "Don't you fool yourself—here they are now."

Friend Gives Her Tip.

The Indians are singing the native songs, when the mystery man "sees" the following conversation between a young lady standing beside a man when another young man walks up. Newcomer: "Say Margaret, you better beat it. I was just talking to him. He asked me if I saw you. He's wild."

Girl: "Thanks, I will. (Turning to her gentleman friend) 'Let's go home, I don't want him to see me here.'"

Man: "You go that way, and I'll meet you in front of the fire plug."

Big Attraction

Tomorrow will be the mystery man's last day with The Salem News. He promises to give the readers of The News everything he "sees," so be careful of your lips and watch your talk.

The mystery man proved to be a big attraction at the Fifth St. lot last night, performing to large crowds. He will appear again this evening and tomorrow, showing the public the "impossible" feat of blowing a wad of paper through his head from ear to ear.

Mr. La Salle, the mystery man, invites all doctors in the city of Salem to come and examine him if they wish during his stay in our city.

ANDY FOUND $5000 IN THE WASTE BASKET THIS MORNING WHICH MAKES 11,000 REASONS WHY HE SHOULD WONDER WHO CAN BE SENDING ALL THE MONEY.

THERE IS SOME REASON FOR THIS SYSTEMATIC GENEROSITY—WHAT IS IT? WHO SENDS IT? WHY?

THE NERVE OF SOME PEOPLE—THEY WAIT TILL THE SHOW IS HALF OVER SO THEY MEN HAVE THE PLEASURE OF STEPPING ALL OVER EVERYBODY—THEY CAN'T HAVE MUCH FUN JUST CLIMBING OVER FOLKS WITH THEIR MUDDY SHOES—THEY SHOULD WEAR SPURS—THEN THEY'D GET SOME REAL ENJOYMENT OUT OF THEIR THEATRE-GOING.

SITTING THERE ROLLING YOUR EYES LIKE A DYING FISH IN A THUNDER STORM—YOU JUST COULDN'T HELP YOUR EYES FROM THAT SPOT—WHY DIDN'T YOU CARRY A FLAG AND HAVE IT AT HER SO SHE'D BE SURE TO SEE YOU—HEARD A WOMAN WHO SAT BEHIND US ASK HER HUSBAND, "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THAT OLD BIRD WITH THE BALL BEATING HECK? IS HIS HEAD LOOSE? IT'S THE LAST TIME HE'LL BE SEEN OUT WITH YOU."

LOSS AND DAMAGE CAMPAIGN OPENS

Pennsylvania System Seeks To Eliminate Causes Of Trouble.

In an effort to bring down to the lowest possible figures the losses sustained by both shippers and the railroad through damage and mishandling of freight while in transit, an aggressive "loss and damage campaign" has been inaugurated on all portions of the Pennsylvania railroad system.

The purpose is to eliminate, as far as practicable, the causes which lead to breakage or other forms of damage or loss.

The railroad management has pledged itself to a vigorous program in dealing with those causes for which the company is responsible, including rough handling of freight by employees, delays in movement, errors in dispatching, defective equipment, etc.

Full co-operation on the part of shippers will be sought in order to give them an opportunity to aid in making the campaign a success.

Attention will be particularly centered upon educating shippers to the necessity for careful packing, the use of better and stronger containers and greater care in labeling and addressing packages. Failures in this re-

Museum Devoted to Indian Life.

For the purpose of studying the aboriginals of the Americas, a new museum has been erected in New York city, where investigations of Indian life may be conducted. The institution, which already contains 1,800,000 specimens of aboriginal life on this continent, is the only one in the world devoted exclusively to the preservation of the records of these early races.

Fine 135-acre farm located 3 1/2 miles from Salem, 1/2 mile from improved road; small house, good bank barn, room for 20 head of cattle. Why it is Easy to Operate

After three years of experiment, development and actual operating tests Westinghouse has produced a Light and Power Plant that anyone on the farm can operate.

The control is simple and accurate. Set the battery meter for the number of hours the plant is to run, press the starting switch; the plant will charge the battery, then stop itself. The engine is air cooled—no water is required. There is only one place to oil. The battery is extra large to insure absence of trouble from overcharging or overdischarging.

All the electrical control apparatus is inclosed in a metal box—fuses are conveniently placed. Live contacts are protected; there are no loose wires or complicated connections. The plant is easily accessible for the few simple adjustments that may be necessary. Directions for operating the plant are on a metal plate riveted to the control box, and cannot be lost.

Ask us to show how you get all the advantages of electric light and power on your farm when you install a Westinghouse Light and Power Plant. In added comfort and convenience and in labor saving it more than pays for itself.

How Accurate Shoud a Watch Be?

In the U. S. naval observatory there are several Riefler clocks, installed at great expense.

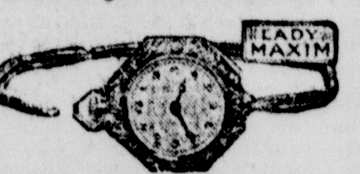

These are mounted on concrete piers to avoid vibration. They are housed in a room which is kept always at a constant temperature. Every 28 seconds they are wound by electricity—their pendulums swing in a vacuum. Yet, in spite of all the precautions which human ingenuity can devise, these clocks do not keep perfect time.

The public, ignorant of these facts, often expect accuracy, from a watch of unknown foreign manufacture. Obviously a cheap watch cannot be as accurate as a more costly one.

LINCOLN HIGHWAY SIGNS ARE PLACED

Sec'y D. W. Davis and C. W. Zimmerman of the Salem Auto club have been busy this week placing Lincoln Highway signs on the route from Rochester, Pa. to Canton. They have been placed as far west as Damascus and the work will be completed as soon as more signs arrive.

These signs indicate a change in the highway at Rochester, where the Salem men have succeeded in eliminating all grade crossings and Lincoln Highway traffic is now being directed through Beaver Falls, East Palestine, Salem and west through Canton.

Sec'y Davis has been in communication with A. F. Bement, vice president and secretary, and G. S. Hoag, field secretary, of the Lincoln Highway association, with headquarters in Detroit. As a result the Salem Auto club has interested itself in placing these signs and in seeing that they are kept in repair in the future.

New Swanson Triumph

Gloria Swanson scored a decided triumph in her latest Paramount production, "My American Wife," at the opening showing at the Royal theater last evening. Miss Swanson has the role of a young Kentucky woman with a love of racing. The scenes are located in Argentina.

Natalie Chester (Miss Swanson) attends a studio party given by Manuel La Tassa (Antonio Moreno) at his studio. Natalie is insulted by a guest and Manuel goes to her rescue. Manuel is wounded in a duel with a rival for the love of the young American girl, and she acts as his nurse. This leads up to several intensely dramatic situations, all of which serve to make "My American Wife" a decidedly interesting picture. The love element is strong and admirably developed.

ENGLISH STUDIED MOST IN SCHOOLS

Civics And Citizenship Do Not Equal Study Of Foreign Languages.

English is the subject most widely studied among the 175,000 boys and girls enrolled in Ohio's 1,100 high schools, according to the annual report of the State Department of Education for 1921-22. Almost as many boys and girls in county school districts study commercial subjects as agriculture; the enrollment in the former was 11,961 and in the latter, 12,556.

Civics and citizenship courses claimed the attention of 55,152, but could not keep pace with the foreign languages, which enrolled over 70,000, divided as follows: Latin, 30,085; French, 26,242; Spanish, 13,380; German, 419. Only two cities had German classes—Toledo and Van Wert; Auglaize, Ashland, Mercer, Preble, and Williams counties also had schools which offered this subject.

Home economics courses interested 25,312 girls while 25,000 boys found manual training to their liking. Courses in the study of occupations, or vocational civics, are gaining in interest and popularity, judging by the fact that 14,019 were enrolled in 1921-22. Only five counties: Carroll, Jackson, Lake, Shelby, and Wyandot did not have classes of this character.

If all the eighth grade graduates to high school, the gain in enrollment will be more than 40,000, since those leaving by the graduation route number only 22,000 as against 64,000 coming in from the eighth grade.

Graduates of first grade high schools totaled 21,582; of second grade schools, 365. Many of the latter grade schools, 396. Many of the latter two groups will pursue their high school training further.

OVERWORKED MOTHERS

We all know them. Mothers who in their anxiety to keep their homes neat and attractive and their little ones well dressed as their playmates, toil on day in and day out, sweeping, dusting, mending and cooking, often suffering from backache, pain in side, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness; all symptoms of more serious ailments. Thousands of such women have found relief from such suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as is evidenced by the letters of recommendation continually being published in this paper. For nearly fifty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring ailing women to health and strength.

In the Alps there is one letter box at elevation of nearly 10,000 feet above the sea level from which there are collections four times a day. There are several letter receptacles at an elevation of between 6,000 and 7,000 feet.

PREDICT ENOUGH APPLES FOR ALL

Ohio Will Have More Than Last Year; Nation a Little Less.

With the June drop of apples about an end, fruit men estimate from what is left on the trees that Ohio will have something more than last year's crop of apples, and that the United States will have something less than last year's crop which, considering the country as a whole, was of bumper proportions.

The June drop in Ohio this year has been extraordinarily severe in spots. The May freeze injured stems as well as blossoms, it now appears, and large quantities of apples which seemed to have "set" lacked the vigor to hang on. Some varieties, notably the Ben Davis, showed less of a drop than others, add K. B. Cruikshank and Frank Beach, horticultural extension men at the Ohio State university, and orchards well fertilized appear, here and there, to have summoned enough strength to hold up apples of all varieties.

Mr. Cruikshank estimates the nation's crop at 25 million barrels this year, as compared to the 33 million barrels picked last fall. The drop has hit other states even harder than Ohio. A letter just received from W. M. McGill, horticulturist in Kentucky, reports that in view of the heavy green apples on the ground many farmers who expected a big picking now have reduced their estimates to 10 per cent of a normal yield. West Virginia and Virginia also report heavy drops.

In general, it is added, apples appear more evenly distributed over the country than in 1922. Every state has some. And every Ohio fruit county, too, appears to have apples, but with trees on low land carrying a good deal less of a load than trees higher up.

TRAINERS GUARD GIBBONS' HEALTH WITH TENDER CARE

Challenger Fears Sickness Which Preceded His Former Fights.

Shelby, Mont., June 22 — If Tom Gibbons had the throat of a prima donna, the limbs of a ballet dancer, the torso of an artists' model and the face of a collar ad his health could not be guarded with more zealous care than is exercised in preparing him for his championship bout with Jack Dempsey July 4.

Illness, it seems, is the one thing that Gibbons respects more than Dempsey's punch. He has every reason to do so. It made him a bad financial risk to any promoter in New York and drove him out here into the sage brush to get his hotel the title. The shot will be worth exactly nothing unless it finds a permanent home on Dempsey's jaw. It was illness that caused Tom Gibbons to stagger through 15 rounds with Harry Greb and make him a second class attraction in New York.

Greb Lacked Punch
"If Greb had a punch, he would have knocked me out about night," declared Gibbons. "I was lucky to last the limit & or I had nothing when I entered the ring and something less when I left it. I had suffered an attack of the flu two or three weeks before the bout but believed I had shaken it off."

"I knew better when I attempted to put up a fight. It wasn't Greb's speed nor the fact that he is a hard man to make a showing against. I had beaten him before, but I couldn't do it that night with most of my energy left in a sickbed."

"Another thing," he added, "it was a charity show and I didn't want to disappoint the fans unless I was absolutely sure that I was not myself. I find that a man can kid himself into believing he is sick just because he does not believe himself to be in top form."

Gibbons has been seized by illness before several of his other bouts, but never has requested a postponement, seems to be a fetish of his he will not give in to weaknesses of the flesh.

Stomach Bothered Him
"The day I met Billy Murray in Portland," Tom said, "I was unable to hold any food on my stomach. Something had gone wrong with my digestive apparatus and while in the dining car enroute, I was forced to send the waiter back to the buffet with my steak because I could not eat it. I was with a party of friends and did not want to worry them by flaunting my weakness."

The Murray bout was the hardest of my career. He was a tough, rugged middleweight who had just shaded Jack Dillon in a decision fight. He certainly made it very unpleasant for me and I was feeling bad enough as it was.

"I met Clay Turner in Pittsburgh before I had fully recovered from an attack of the flu. I lived to regret it although later I knocked Turner upside down."

Just at the moment Gibbons' health is all that human flesh can expect. The altitude and climate of Shelby seem to agree with him like a close friend, but Eddie Kone and his handlers are taking about as many chances as a sure thing gambler with Gibbons' health. They wouldn't let him box yesterday because he had a more or less harmless cold.

Strange Double Knockdown In Ring

Harry Gordon and Care Tremaine.

Here is one of the strangest fight pictures ever taken. In the preliminary fight before Pancho Villa, the Filipino, won the world's bantam-weight championship from Jimmy Wilde, Harry Gordon fought Carl Tremaine. The bantams were mixing it up fiercely when they landed simultaneous rights to the jaw, each knocking the other down. Both men took the count before continuing the fight, which went to Gordon on the referee's decision.

MARSHAL TO QUIT COLUMBIANA JOB

Too Many Jobs For Benson While Shortage Of Funds Is Factor.

Columbiana, June 22.—Jerome Benson, marshal for Columbiana, has decided to resign. Benson came into office six months ago following the resignation of Thomas Harrold. The cause of this instability of such an important municipal office is said to be due to a shortage of funds and lack of co-operation.

The job of being marshal in Columbiana may seem, easy, looking at it from the inside. Beside keeping the peace among the domestic, social and traffic infringements he must act as street commissioner and this amid the multitudinous duties of the city council with few funds in the treasury.

So Officer Benson has concluded that all the joy has been taken out of being the marshal of Columbiana. Benson has been a good officer and is well fitted for the position.

Women Teachers In Ohio Outnumber Men Four To One

State Has 36,399 Teachers And 1,358,000 Children Of School Age.

The women teachers in Ohio outnumber the men four to one, according to figures for the year 1921-22 just made public by the State Director of Education.

Those who deplore the feminization of the schools will find least comfort in the city elementary schools where the ratio of women to men is almost eight to one. In the country school districts the ratio is six to one.

The balance between men and women is better maintained in the High schools of the state, which employ 2,089 men and 44,725 women. The total number of elementary teachers is 28,585.

Ohio has 1,358,000 children of school age (5 to 18 years), 1,064,099 children in school, and a total of 36,399 teachers to serve their educational needs. In school enrollment the

Women Fans Make Baseball Prosperous And Refined

Thanks To Women Fans Baseball Is Enjoying Its Most Prosperous Season, Says Ban Johnson.

Chicago, June 22.—Women fans deserve much of the credit for making this one of baseball's most prosperous years, Ben Johnson, American league president, said today. After adding up attendance figures for nearly half the season.

"The frequent attendance of women," he said, "has added such refinement to baseball that it no longer appeals only to a rough and tumble crowd, but to a class of sport loving people that ranks with those who attend the first class theaters and even the opera."

"Years ago the few women one saw at a baseball game were there out of curiosity. They asked foolish questions and had not even a vague idea of what it was all about."

Today the many women in the stands are there because they love the sport, just as they love the drama, the dance and out of doors activities. They know the strategy of the game and they recognize the skillful player.

"The mere presence of women in the stands has accomplished exactly what baseball has fought so hard for years to affect—it has eliminated rowdyism."

Johnson recalled the days of nearly two decades when the spectators boys maintain a lead of 17,000 over the girls.

The average number of pupils per teacher is 29; in the elementary grades the average is 31; in the High school it is 22.

The enumeration returns show that there are more children eight years of age than of any other age. The 17-year olds constitute the smallest group. There are 15,000 more boys than girls in the state between 5 and 18 years.

The number of boys and girls of school age make up almost one-fourth of the population of the state.

Value of food products manufactured in Canada during 1917 almost doubled that of 1915.

S.S.S. keeps away Pimples

THERE are thousands of women who wonder why their complexions do not improve in spite of all the face treatments they use. They should not continue to wonder. Eruptions come from blood impurities and a lack of rich blood-cells. S.S.S. is acknowledged to be one of the most powerful, rapid and effective blood cleansers known.

S.S.S. builds new blood-cells. This is why S.S.S. routs out of your system the impurities which cause boils, pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetter, rash. S.S.S. is a remarkable flesh-builder. That's why underweight people can quickly build up their lost flesh, get back their normal weight, pink, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and "pep."

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

It's the KIND of Feed—NOT the Amount

A WELL fed horse from the standpoint of quality may be in poor condition. This is so because just a monotonous diet of oats or corn with hay fails to keep him in real fine shape.

Dry, tasteless oats are not appetizing and generally only partially digested.

Horses that are fed in the cities in this fashion, and never are turned out on pasture for a few weeks each summer, rapidly lose their strength and vigor. They die much earlier than horses which are given a variety of feed. This is because the animals' bodies demand certain things, which cannot be supplied in oats and corn.

Purina O-Molene has the necessary variety. O-Molene is not only more appetizing than ordinary feeds but it is more digestible. It takes less of O-Molene than the usual grain rations because it is completely balanced and does not have too much of one ingredient and not enough of another.
